Gracious N'gandwe, teaching, Kitwe

“The brothers and sisters are to love the Lord with their whole heart, their whole souls and mind and with all their strength, and to love their neighbours as themselves. Let them glorify the Lord in all they do ... that they make known to all that the Lord alone is God.”

Rule and Life, Third Order Regular of St. Francis

Ellen Munn with Archbishop T. Mpundu, Lusaka at our Lady's Hospice, Kalingalinga

Elizabeth Martins, teaching at Chitundwa Government School, Kasanka community.

Bending the mind to the task, Regional Planning Lusaka September 2012

“It is by the care we show to the most weak and vulnerable in our society that civilization can be judged”

Sr. Helen Scully in the classroom.

“Little Assisi” Special Education Centre was opened in 2007 in Ng'ombe Compound, Lusaka, with the help of the FMDM Congregation and some donors, and the energy and experience of Sr. Helen Scully. We have 30 children registered at the Centre with a wide range of physical and mentally challenged abilities.
