Comings and Goings

A big welcome to Jane Francis as La Verna shift leader (night duty)

Sister Barbara Kole recently returned from Chicago to La Verna, after caring for her mother for some years, Welcome home Barbara!

We all wished Andy Dowling good luck in his new venture and we will miss him as our Transport and Security Officer - a mainstay here in Ladywell for the past 1½ yrs. We will miss his pleasant manner and friendly smile as he went around his duties in the Ladywell complex. Thank you for keeping us safe and sound Andy.

Curt Gibson, (Estates Manager) gave a vote of thanks to Andy

Tracy Manzi (General Manager) presented farewell gifts

Very many staff and sisters enjoyed a last afternoon tea and a chat with Andy.

News from our Mission Partners

Liza Reintges shared some photos of her daughter Joanna's wonderful wedding to Darren in S.A.

VISITS FOR MISSION PARTNERS AND SISTERS TO THE 'ST FRANCIS OF ASSISI' ART EXHIBITION AT THE NATIONAL GALLERY, LONDON

This exhibition gave our sisters and mission partners a great opportunity to avail of several expeditions together. Some groups had their lunch at 'The Passage' homeless project at Victoria.

The backdrop to this photo is an amazing living wall of foliage

This group were carried their folding chairs and had a picnic lunch in St James' Park.

The welcome marquee all set for the evening meal and the wedding cake atop a beer barrel against the backdrop of a romantic African sunset.

Thank you

Thank you Sister Beth Obbard for inviting FMDM's to your Diamond Jubilee in Quidenham Carmel, Norfolk. Beth entered Ladywell in 1963 and was a treasured FMDM for several years until she responded to the call of the Carmelite contemplative life in Quidenham

Sr Beth after renewing her life long Religious vows

Sr Elizabeth Obbard was Sister Sion in Ladywell

Jude O'Mara, Srs Frances Hall, Mary Rose and Maureen Halley enjoyed their day with Beth

Cutting her Jubilee Cake

Sophie, a pupil of Farnborough Hills School attended a school leavers Mass at Ladywell and took the opportunity to visit her great Aunt's grave..

Sr Teresa McGarry R.I.P who died when Sophie was just 1 yr old.

She touchingly left flowers and prayed at the graveside ... Thank you Sophie... Sr Teresa was a great FMDM.
