CONDOLENCE LETTER

Kindly accept my heartfelt condolences on the passing away of Sr. Catherine Cashman (Kitty). She spent her youthful and active years serving our people in Nigeria. As a teenage minor seminarian I was privileged with many others to benefit from the meticulous health care services she gave to us.

As a priest of Yola Diocese I was a guest of the lovely Yakoko Christmas party where Sr. Kitty and the other FMDM Sisters always warmly received and entertained us with great attention.

As Bishop of Jalingo Diocese and now Archbishop of Jos, I remained in cordial contact with Sr. Kitty whom I appreciate so much for her thoroughness, dedication and friendly disposition.

On behalf of all of us in Nigeria I entrust the soul of Sr. Kitty into the compassionate hands of our Lord, asking for the gift of eternal life for her, while wishing you of the FMDM Congregation the Consolation of the Holy Spirit. May she rest in perfect peace.

In communion of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

Most Rev. Ignatius A. Kaigama,
Archbishop of Jos and President,
Catholic Bishops' Conference of Nigeria.
